CONNEXUS GLOBAL COMPANY SUMMARY

We're Connexus. We're stripping back executive recruitment & advisory to what it's really all about: finding great talent and insights when the pressure is on.

At Connexus, we know that incorporating technology, data, and artificial intelligence (AI) into our working practices will enable us to deliver smarter recruitment solutions, understand our clients' problems, and add genuine value. However, we also recognise that recruitment will always revolve around human connections, and our focus is squarely on building these connections across the product value chain.

At Connexus, we're as real as it gets. We take a no-nonsense approach and get the job done.

Our Industrial Division supports organisations in recruiting leaders and professionals across the value chain.

These in-demand professionals sit across key functions, including Sales & Marketing, Operations & Production, R&D, Technology & Transformation, Supply Chain & Procurement, General Management, and Corporate Support Functions.
